5. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

■ Duty of Disclosure:

a) Consumer Insurance Contract:

- Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance). You must answer the questions fully and accurately.
- Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.
- The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.
- In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied.
- You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

b) Non-Consumer Insurance Contract:

- Pursuant to Paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this insurance for a purpose related to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to disclose any matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied and any matter a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant, otherwise it may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.
- The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.
- You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.
- You must disclose all material facts such as your occupation and your personal pursuits which would affect the risk profile and number of personal accident policies that you have purchased from other insurance companies;
- Insurance shall not commence until the premium has been actually paid to and accepted by us;
- A duly executed proposal form must be provided;
- Upon the happening of any accident likely to give rise to a claim, you shall inform us within 30 days after the happening of the accident;
- The insured shall not be less than 3 years* of age nor more than 65 years of age; and
- You must observe and fulfil the terms, provisions, conditions, clauses and endorsement of this policy.

Note: *Person between the age of 3 and 18 (23 if studying) can be covered. However, benefit (a), (f), (i) and (j) are excluded. Children are entitled to only 50% of the other benefits [(b), (c), (d), (e), (g) and (h)].

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the policy contract for the full terms and conditions under this policy.

6. What are the major exclusions under this policy?

This policy does not cover certain losses, such as claims directly or indirectly caused by:

- War risks;
- Provoked murder or provoked assault;
- Insanity, suicide or any attempt thereat, intentional self-inflicted injury or any attempt thereat;
- Pregnancy, childbirth, miscarriage, hernia or any complication thereof;
- While the driver of any vehicle occupied by the insured person is under influence of liquor or drugs;
- HIV and/or any HIV related illness including AIDS or AIDS related complex howsoever caused, any contagious disease and/or any mutant derivatives, variations or treatment thereof and/or sexually transmitted diseases;

- Whilst committing or attempting to commit any unlawful act or while resisting arrest.

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the policy contract for the full list of exclusions under this policy.

7. Can I cancel my policy?

- You may cancel your policy at any time by giving 14 days written notice to us;
- Upon cancellation, we will retain the premium for the time the policy has been in force or the minimum premium whichever is higher;
- We may also cancel this policy by giving you 14 days written notice by registered post;
- In the case of cancellation by us, you shall be entitled to a refund of proportionate part of the premium corresponding to the unexpired period of insurance, subject to a minimum retained premium; and
- Stamp duty is not refunded.

8. What do I need to do if there are changes to my contact details?

It is important that you inform us of any change in your contact details to ensure that all correspondences reach you in a timely manner.

You must also inform us of any change in your life profile including your occupation and personal pursuits which would affect the risk profile. A written letter must be given to us.

Note: We have a right to accept or repudiate your claim if changes of your occupation is hazardous or under the referred/decline risk.
